

Library Lines what's new and what's special – in the library and on the web

“... giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.” Ephesians 5:20

You can now log in to your account on the library online catalog. See what you have checked out, place a reserve request, and keep a Book Bin of titles you're interested in. To get started go to our catalog, click on “Sign In” at the top and enter your name as firstlast (no space) and the last 4 numbers of your cell phone. If you have trouble, email library@cherrycreekpres.org, or call on Wednesday 303-779-9909, extension 5117.

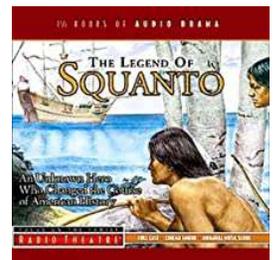

Extraordinary Stories: God's Grace in Ordinary Lives are on display in the library. Read these true stories of God's working in the lives of regular people.

Book of the Month Lady Jane Grey (J 921 GREY) Lady Jane Grey's life of courage for the sake of the Gospel is an example for us today. With full-page original illustrations and easy-to-understand text this children's book makes a great family read-aloud.

Six Benefits of Studying church History If you don't want to read the whole article, at least scroll down to the list.

Thanksgiving is coming so come in to see our display on the small table for things to enhance your gratitude this month.

On Reading Old Books How can we maintain a good perspective on the world in the midst of hot takes and Twitter's Outrage of the Day? We can take the advice of C. S. Lewis: “Every age has its own outlook. It is specially good at seeing certain truths and specially liable to make certain mistakes. We all, therefore, need the books that will correct the characteristic mistakes of our own period. And that means the old books.”

To receive this as a monthly email, please email us at library@cherrycreekpres.org or fill out a yellow registration slip in the library (on the red cabinet).