

NEW this SPRING

The first two books are by CCPC authors

A Most Incredible Adventure: A Memoir (921 HUTCHESON) Kent Hutcheson certainly lived an amazing life. Learn about his family, his lifelong spiritual development and experiences in ministry, his battle with leukemia, and the organizations he has founded both nationally and internationally.

Damaged Goods: American Evangelical Ethics (241 MARTIN) Many are troubled by the role the evangelical church is playing in American public life today. Maurice Martin, ethics professor, pastor, pilot and former Congo relief and development director, addresses one of the most important challenges facing both the church and America in today's world.

God's Hostage: A True Story of Persecution (272 BRUNSON) In 1993, Andrew Brunson and his wife, Norine, moved to Turkey to serve as missionaries. In 2016 they were arrested. Norine was released, but Andrew was imprisoned. Accused of being a spy, he became a political pawn. This book tells the true story of his imprisonment, his brokenness, his faithfulness...and his freedom.

Flourish: How the Love of Christ Frees Us from Self-Focus (248.4 BROWNBAC) We all long to live out our faith with daily joy, but so often that joy eludes us. As we dig deep into what God says in his Word, we will learn to discern the worldly influences that threaten to warp our understanding, and emerge with a faith that really flourishes.

The Gospel According to Satan: Eight Lies About God That Sound Like the Truth (261.21 WILSON) Not every lie sounds untrue. Some sound like common sense. That's why lies about God are so dangerous. Be warned and equipped to fight them.

Competing Spectacles: Treasuring Christ In the Media Age (261.52 REINKE) In our visual culture today, we are constantly drawn to images that have the power to capture our imagination and shape us, drawing our hearts away from devotion to God.

The Ten Commandments of Progressive Christianity (261.21 KRUGER) There are ten principles set forth by proponents of progressive Christianity. They are far less about God revealing his desires and far more about man expressing his own. Yet each of these commandments is partially true.

Gentle and Lowly: The Heart of Christ for Sinners and Sufferers (232 ORTLAND) Who is Jesus Christ? What is his deepest heart for his people, weary and faltering on their journey toward heaven? Jesus said he is "gentle and lowly in heart." What does this really mean for us?
